VML / KingEclient | Arab National Bank

Senior UX/UI Designer

Currently, I am working as a Senior UX/UI designer at Arab National Bank. VML is a leading Design agency that is part of the prestigious WPP group. I am located in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, where I develop interfaces for applications and websites for the Arab National Bank, one of the benchmark banks at the national level. As a senior designer, I lead several projects simultaneously, understanding the needs of users to improve their digital experiences. I have assisted in setting up the department, recruiting profiles and managing tasks with the team.

RELIQIUM | Digital Jewelry

Founder & Designer

Reliqium is a startup that reinvents the jewelry sector by adding the value of technology. It reinvents the locket, that necklace that our grandparents wore with a photo inside.

I made an investment from my own pocket to carry out the idea. I designed the app the jewelry & the marketing strategy.
